

SF WEEKLY

The Happiest Hours

We do the legwork to find you 30 of the most satisfying places to sip and snack.

By Matthew Stafford

Epic Roasthouse

369 Embarcadero (at Harrison),
369-9955,
www.epicroasthousesf.com

3–6:30 p.m. Mon.–Fri.

The waterfront views are lovely from Epic's Quiver Bar (named for the Cupid's Span sculpture just outside), but the happy hour deals are pretty sweet, too — potato curls with herbs de Provence, fleur de sel, and arugula pesto ($3); smoked chicken drumettes with corn relish ($5); and soft, house-made breadsticks ($3).

Every day there's a different premium bottled beer for $3, and house wines and cocktails are $5. Fun, festive atmosphere with comfortable chairs, industrial-chic accents, and a view of the Bay Bridge through the floor-to-ceiling windows.